

Parent Bill of Rights

-  We believe that parents have rights and that their concerns are reasonable and important.
-  Parents have the right to know that their child will be safe at school, both physically and emotionally.
-  Parents have the right to know that all children will be treated fairly regardless of race, creed, national origin, economic status, gender or age and that each child will be treated as an individual.
-  Parents have the right to know that the staff is experienced and trained in child development.
-  Parents have the right to know that any negative or cruel behavior among students or between students and staff will not be tolerated.
-  Parents have the right to be treated with courtesy by all members of the staff.
-  Parents have the right to participate in meaningful parent-teacher conferences to discuss their child's school progress and welfare.
-  Parents have the right to know that they can approach a staff member with a concern and that the staff member will listen carefully and will do everything possible to address the issue.
-  Parents have the right to information on academic requirements of the school program.
-  Parents have the right to inspect their child's records and respond to any statement.
-  Parents have the right to be informed of and to appeal school policies.
-  Parents have the right to be informed of and to appeal administrative decisions.